

March 10, 2017

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Lynelle Zelner, Executive Director
561-248-6064

FPL VOLUNTEERS WILL PREPARE 100 “WE CARE” PACKAGES AT FORGOTTEN SOLDIERS OUTREACH – PART OF THEIR “POWER TO CARE” WEEK – SATURDAY, MARCH 11TH

Lake Worth, Fla. – On Saturday, March 11th from 9:00 to 1:00 p.m., more than 30 FPL volunteers will have all hands on deck at Forgotten Soldiers Outreach in Lake Worth to create “We Care” packages for U.S. military personnel deployed overseas.

IDEAL MEDIA TIME: 10:30-11:30 AM

This is one of more than 30 volunteer projects that are part of Power to Care Week, now in its ninth year. During the week, FPL volunteers will tackle community projects in 12 counties throughout Florida.

“We continue to be so grateful for FPL’s support,” said Lynelle Zelner, Executive Director and Founder of Forgotten Soldiers Outreach. “Their commitment to working with the communities they serve is very special and much appreciated.”

Forgotten Soldiers Outreach is a local nonprofit that sends monthly We Care packages to deployed military personnel who face many challenges while away from home. The mission continues as “Supporting America’s deployed military service members to ensure they are not forgotten”.

Since its inception in 2003, FSO has benefited well over 400,000 of our military to date. For more information about Forgotten Soldiers Outreach, a 501(c)(3) charitable organization, please log on to www.forgottensoldiers.org or call 561-369-2933.

###